VALENTINE PARTY.
An Elegant Entertainment in Cumberland With Some Unique Features.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
ANGOLA, VA., Feb. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. Tucker C. Johnson gave a most delightful "valentine" party at their hospitable home, "Dreemont," in honor of their daughters, Misses Annie Belle and Mary Carrington Johnson, on the evening of the 14th.

The home, which was brilliantly lighted, was soon made merry by the kindly arriving guests of St. Valentine. All who were invited were requested to bring a valentine of their own composition, and great was the fun when they all were read out by Messrs. F. A. Smith, of Smyth, and Robert Gills, of Angola.

Dancing was begun soon after all guests had arrived, and was kept up until supper was announced. The pink lights cast a beautiful glow on the table which was prettily decorated. The cakes, in shape of hearts, pierced by Cupid's arrows, and the "valentines" were "No previous attachments considered," made some of the guests wonder how many hearts present were pierced by the cruel arrows of Dan Cupid.

Refreshments consisted of oysters, turkey, ham, salad, coffee and bread; jelly, angelica, cakes, oranges and grapes.

After the guests returned to the parlors, dancing was continued until half-past 2 o'clock. Then the "cake" was brought in and cut for the ring. It was found by Miss Mary Carrington Johnson. Among those present were: Misses Louise and Eva Burley, Alma French, Alice Hobson, of Sunnyside; Agnes Johns, of Curdsville; Mattie Bolling Johnson, of Amelia; Mary Pettie Crute, of Sydney; John, of Belle Blanton, of Saffie.

A. A. Workman, Mr. and Mrs. J. W.
Hazen, of Smyth; Hugh Johnson, of Curdsville; Ben Johns, of Curdsville; Robert Gills and William Johnson, of Amelia; James V. Crute, of Elisha Madison, of Mattheus, of Smyth; Sam Miller, of Henderson; and George Johnson, of Spencer Powers, of Hugh Johnson and Brazil Hobson.

Miss Belle Blanton, who teaches school near Cumberland Courthouse, is very rich at the home of her father, Dr. H. H. Blanton, near here.

Miss Mary Pettie Crute, who has been visiting Miss Annie Page Jones, of New Store, and Mrs. Paul M. Jones, of Sheppards, has returned to her home, near Studert.

Mr. Joseph T. Crute, of Crews, is on his way to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wyatt Crute.

Catholic Notes.
A meeting of the delegates of the various Catholic Societies of the city will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the rooms of the McGuff Catholic Union to determine upon the method of celebrating St. Patrick's Day this year. Dr. William McGowan, chairman of the St. Patrick's Day Committee, will preside. It is thought that an effort will be made to revive the parade feature of the celebration. Division No. 2, Order of Hibernians, will confer the third and fourth degree on a large number of members Thursday night. A new feature of the organization which is in operation all over the country.

At the cathedral on each Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, instead of a regular set sermon there will be given a course of short familiar instructions, consisting of a brief exposition of some of the principal points of Catholic belief.

The subject to be treated next Wednesday night will be "Sin and the Redemption."
